

78B-6-122.5 Effect of out-of-state paternity adjudication, declaration, or acknowledgment.

Unless a person who is an unmarried biological father has fully and strictly complied with the requirements of Sections 78B-6-120 through 78B-6-122, an out-of-state order that adjudicates paternity, or an out-of-state declaration or acknowledgment of paternity:

- (1) only has the effect of establishing that the person is an unmarried biological father of the child to whom the order, declaration, or acknowledgment relates; and
- (2) does not entitle the person to:
 - (a) notice of any judicial proceeding related to the adoption of the child;
 - (b) the right to consent, or refuse to consent, to the adoption of the child; or
 - (c) the right to custody of, control over, or visitation with the child.
